

THE CENTURY of WOMEN

Throughout history, women have worked tirelessly for the peace and safety of their families and their communities. Today, women are taking leading roles in the quest for global security and equal rights. ● The continuing empowerment of women throughout the world is a key to solving the world's most pressing issues. ● This exhibit features the contributions of a few women. Untold millions more—both prominent and little known—have dedicated themselves to a fair and peaceful future.

The Century of Women exhibit is just one of the many projects made possible by the support of the International Committee of Artists for Peace (ICAP), an organization whose mission is to establish peace and develop peacemakers through the transformative power of art. ICAP was founded in 2002 by Buddhist philosopher and President of the Soka Gakkai International (SGI) group, Daisaku Ikeda.
