

WORLD PEACE:

WHAT DOES IT LOOK LIKE TO YOU!

World Peace...what does it look like to you?
Is it possible? Can you make a difference?
Have more questions?

Share your feelings, ideas and questions with our panelists from Louisiana State University, Southern University and Baton Rouge Community College.

Join us for the forum featuring a panel discussion on the topics of World Peace and "What World Peace Means to You!" and "Have Artists as Peacemakers Touched Your Life?" Panelists will be composed of international and American students from each institution (LSU and Southern University in Baton Rouge, and the Baton Rouge Community College) .

When: This Forum is on Thursday, October 7, 6 pm.

Where: Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, International Cultural Center, 3365 Dalrymple Drive

In 1998, through a resolution adopted by the Institute of All Nations, Inc., October 1 is observed as World Peace Day. Louisiana's World Peace Day Committee and other volunteers have worked together to plan and hold events recognizing World Peace Day in an effort to eliminate violence and promote peace in individuals, families, countries and nations. Events recognizing World Peace Day this year include the exhibit, Artists as Peacemakers, Interfaith Service and a Panel Discussion on World Peace.
